Dear Mrs. Manley:

Mr. Reilly has sent me copies of the telegrams that were exchanged between you and him and also has written me a letter and, as we understand it, you are going to send in specifications for your uniforms and we will get to work on these just as quickly as we can.

They will be made out of our best Major League material in white and, as I said, we will do our utmost to make as quick delivery as possible.

I can tell you now that we are very definitely tied up with a lot of promises for the next five or six weeks, a great many of which are with the military forces on priority which we have to deliver as we have made scheduled promises.

We have had so many baseball uniform orders come in since the season started from Major Leagues and other professional leagues, some for fill-ins and some for complete sets that we are just about as busy making uniforms now as we were before the season opened.

Then, too, we had set aside so many other orders prior to the opening of the league season on which we made definite promises that we are pretty badly cramped and, of course, our labor situation is not too good, but we will do the best we can as we want to serve you as quickly as possible.

Thanks very much for the order.

Cordially yours,

W. L. Robb
